--	---

No attorney or lay-advocate admitted to the bar of any other tribe, state, or federal court may appear in any Court or administrative adjudicatory forum of the Tribe unless the attorney or lay-advocate is admitted to the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa Tribal Court Bar. No other person may appear in any court or administrative forum of the Tribe on behalf of any person or entity unless the person is a member of the Bar of the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa, except as allowed by Rule G-5a. A person may apply to become a member of the Bar of the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa by submitting a Motion for Admission to the Court of Appeals and a non-refundable application fee of $100.00 annually.

The motion must contain the applicant's sworn statement that the applicant has reviewed the Tribe's statutory laws and Court rules, that the applicant consents to the jurisdiction of the Tribe for all matters related to the application for admission and all other conduct by the applicant, whether before or after admission and whether by appearance, written submission, or otherwise, in the Tribe's courts and administrative adjudicatory fora. Applicant must agree to advise the Court if his or her status changes in any Court to which he or she is admitted.

COMES NOW, the Applicant, _____, and hereby moves the Court of Appeals for admission to practice law before the Tribal Court and/or administrative adjudicatory fora of the Sac & Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa. In support of this motion, Applicant states, under penalty of perjury of the Sac & Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa, the following:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice law in the following jurisdictions, including my attorney registration number: _____
_____.

2. I am / am not currently in good standing in all of the jurisdictions in which I am admitted to practice law. If not, attached please find a written explanation.

3. I am an attorney with _____, whose address is _____. I anticipate that I will appear regularly before the courts and administrative fora of the Tribe.
4. I have reviewed the Sac & Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa statutory laws and all current draft court rules, including rules for civil procedure, rules for criminal procedure and rules for family relations cases. I consent to the jurisdiction of the Tribe for all matters related to the application for admission and all other conduct by me, whether before or after admission and whether by appearance, written submission, or otherwise, in the Tribal Court and/or administrative adjudicatory fora.
5. I pledge to advise the Court if my status in any other jurisdiction to which I am admitted changes.
6. Enclosed please find the non-refundable filing fee of $100.00.
